

At next week's Spring 2009 Depository Library Council Meeting, GPO's Public Printer, Bob Tapella, will speak about GPO's role in Government transparency. Mr. Tapella will discuss the successful public launch of GPO's Federal Digital System (FDsys) and how it provides Americans transparency to the workings of the Obama Administration and to the documents of our democracy. Mr. Tapella will also discuss GPO's goals to assist the Administration with implementing its transparency and open government initiatives. The Public Printer's presentation will take place at the Council Plenary Kick Off Session on Monday, April 20, 2009, at 10:30 a.m.

Read the full news release from GPO.